Ravi Solanki is an Estate Planner and a Partner at Buckingham Gate Estate Planning.

He graduated in 2006 from Jesus College, University of Cambridge and holds several estate planning qualifications. He is a member of the Society of Will Writers and a Member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

After graduation, Ravi worked for more than a decade in various financial roles within the fund management industry in London before starting Sure Wealth.

Here, he was able to connect with his true inner calling - helping families achieve financial security and peace of mind.

He enjoys connecting with clients on a more personal level, so that he can learn all about their values and ambitions to help them realise their dreams. His focus is always to make the challenging subject of estate planning as simple as possible and making sure their family's financial future is secured.

Besides his professional journey, Ravi's also a published author. His book, "What We Leave Behind," is all about helping individuals and families protect their assets, plan for the future, and create a meaningful legacy.

Ravi lives in London and loves reading, exploring new places, savouring a good glass of wine, playing the piano, and cheering on his favourite football team, Arsenal.
